OLD BUSINESS

- April 22, 2014 Earth Day Poster Contest at schools – Mary Pinney - Ms. Pinney sent email stating “the poster contest was fun, there were so many great posters; choices were difficult to make. In the end, we chose first, second, third and three honorable mentions at each school, plus an overall best at each school. Next year it was decided that one school would be judged in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The kids really worked hard on posters.”
- Barnegat Blitz held April 25, 2014 – Jeff Torno – Mr. Torno was unable to make event but stated DEP and volunteers cleaned Route 526, Red Valley Road and thanked the Millstone Township DPW, Lori Maher and Matt Shafai’s office.
- Update on ANJEC grant that we received to purchase signs for the trails. Signs will be put up by DPW within one week per Pat Butch.
- Millstone Township Open Space & Farmland Preservation Agricultural Advisory Council 8th Annual Clambake Fundraiser – Sunday, June 8, 2014
- Dump location behind school that was observed at our Stream Clean up day will be investigated. This item will be on our June 9 meeting agenda for further discussion.

NEW BUSINESS

- Mayor Kinsey appointed Mary Pinney to represent Millstone Township on the County Master Plan Environmental Working Group. Ms. Pinney attended first meeting on May 1 and will attend the second meeting on June 5. She will report to EC at our June meeting. Mr. Frost gave the EC an update as to what this committee is about.
