Chairman opens the meeting to the public at 7:43 p.m.

Mr. Brian Kokot, a representative of the Millstone United Travel Soccer program spoke on behalf of the MUTS program. Mr. Kokot read a statement from the organization in regards to a possible merge with the Recreation Department. The commission followed with some questions and comments and requested some additional detailed information. The commission will follow up once the information is received.

Chairman closes the meeting to the public at 8:30 p.m.

Agenda items:

Soccer - C/Simels will follow up with the information requested from the MUTS. Our recreation soccer programs will begin registration.

Summer Camp - C/Morris was given an update on summer camp. Camp has been running for a couple weeks. Everything has been going well, just a few building issues that the director has been able to work around.

Millstone Day - Preparations are still going on. The recreation office is receiving registrations and currently looking for additional vendors.

Warriors - C/Adornetti stated he is working on getting coaches in place and working on preparations for the fall season.

Motion to approve Non-Resident Policy, Moved C/Adornetti, Seconded C/Simels, Carried
